

Questions over "The Journey"

1. Write a sentence describing the subject of the poem.
2. Write a sentence describing any connections you can make to the essay (text to self, text to world, or text to text).
3. List, without looking back at the poem, the most memorable moments of the essay.
4. Jot down notes about your impression of the speaker. What do you think he or she is like based on this poem?
5. Draw a rhetorical triangle and fill it in for this poem. (Audience, Writer, Purpose)